

In anticipation of a need for clean-up materials and supplies in Calhoun County, a countywide effort in Macoupin County is being organized by Macoupin County Board Chairman Andy Manar and Pam Monetti, office manager for the Carlinville district office of U.S. Congressman Phil Hare.

Macoupin County residents who would like to contribute to the flood relief effort can drop off items at the following locations:

DESIGNATED DROPOFF LOCATIONS:

- * Bunker Hill: Spectator's Club Restaurant, on Route 159 south of Bunker Hill
- * Bunker Hill: First Congregational Church, 105 North Franklin Street
- * Carlinville: Office of U.S. Congressman Phil Hare, 210 N. Broad Street in the Farm Bureau Building
- * Carlinville: Office of County Board Chairman Andy Manar, 129 E. 1st South Street, Carlinville in the Sheriff's Administration Bldg (2nd floor)
- * Staunton: First United Methodist Church, 513 West Main Street
- * Gillespie: United Methodist Church, 600 West Broadway (Rte 16 West)
- * Girard: Office of Mayor Bruce Pitchford, Girard City Hall
- * Palmyra: Palmyra Municipal Building

DONATIONS BEING ACCEPTED:

The following items will help in the flood clean-up efforts: bleach, cleaning supplies, thick plastic cleaning gloves, heavy duty trash bags (lawn/leaf bags), paper towels, large industrial buckets, large sponges, clean rags, mops and/or wide brooms.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Chairman Andrew Manar
Telephone: (217) 854-3341
E-mail: awmanar@yahoo.com

Pam Monetti
Office of Congressman Phil Hare
Telephone: (217) 854-2290
E-mail: pam.monetti@mail.house.gov